GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

19       1. Time Period. The time period for these requests is June 1, 2008 through the present 20 unless stated otherwise.

21       2. Responses: When an Interrogatory asks for specific information, and the specific 22 information requested is not known to you, such Interrogatory shall be deemed to ask you to 23 approximate the information requested as best you can, provided that you indicate in your response 24 that the information being provided is an approximation or is incomplete in certain specific requests.
25 When, after a reasonable and thorough investigation using due diligence, you are unable to answer 26 any part of an Interrogatory because of lack of information available to you, specify in full and 27 complete detail the type of information which you claim is not available to you and what has been 28 done by you to locate such information. In addition, specify what knowledge or information you

1 have concerning the unanswered portion of the Interrogatory, set forth the facts upon which such 2 knowledge or belief is based, and identify the person or entity who is likely to have the information 3 which you claim is not available.

4       3. Construction: For purposes of reading, interpreting, or construing the scope of the 5 DEFINITIONS, INSTRUCTIONS, and INTERROGATORIES, all of the terms shall be given their 6 most expansive and inclusive interpretation. This INCLUDES the following:

- 7           (a)     The singular form of a word shall be interpreted as plural, and vice versa.
- 8           (b)     “And,” “or,” as well as “and/or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the Request any document that might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope of the Request.
- 9           (c)     “All,” “each” and “any” shall be construed as “all, each, and any.”
- 10          (d)     The masculine form of a word shall be interpreted as and shall include the feminine, and vice versa.
- 11          (e)     The use of a verb in any particular tense shall be construed as the use of the verb in all other tenses as necessary to bring within the scope of the Request any document that might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope of the Request.

12       4. Objections: Each Interrogatory shall be responded to fully, unless it is objected to 13 in good faith. In that case, the reason(s) for the objection shall be stated in writing and with 14 particularity. If an objection is to only a portion of the Interrogatory, state the objection as to that 15 portion only and respond to any portion of the Interrogatory to which YOU do not object.

- 16           (a)     If YOU claim any ambiguity in interpreting the Interrogatory or any of the applicable Instructions or Definitions, such claim shall not be used as a basis for refusing to respond to the Interrogatory. In any such circumstance, YOU should set forth as part of YOUR response the language claimed to be ambiguous and the interpretation chosen or used by YOU in responding to the Interrogatory and YOU shall respond as fully as possible notwithstanding any claimed ambiguity or objection.

(b) If YOU object to the Interrogatory on the ground that it is overly broad, YOU are instructed to provide a response as narrowed to conform to YOUR objection and to state in YOUR response: (1) how YOU narrowed the Interrogatory; and (2) all reason(s) why YOU claim the Interrogatory is overly broad.

8       5. Privilege Log: If any information called for by these Interrogatories is withheld 9 under a claim of privilege or is not responded to for whatever reason, you are requested at the time 10 of responding to these Interrogatories to separately state in writing and with specificity for any such 11 information withheld (a) the claim of privilege or other reason asserted for withholding such 12 information; and (b) all information supporting the claim of privilege or other reason for 13 withholding asserted as to such information, including, without limitation, the type or nature of the 14 response for which a privilege is claimed, all in a manner sufficient to allow each response to be 15 described to the Court in order for the Court to rule on the validity of the claim of privilege or other 16 reason asserted for withholding your response. You are further requested to provide all requested 17 information that is not subject to a claim of privilege or other reasons for nonresponse by excising 18 or otherwise protecting the portion of such response for which a privilege is asserted and responding 19 to the remainder of the interrogatory.

20       6. Continuing Obligation: These interrogatories are to be considered continuing in 21 nature, and you must promptly furnish supplemental responses if any additional information is 22 discovered or created after your responses are tendered, or if any of your responses are subsequently 23 determined to be incorrect, incomplete, or misleading in any respect.
